

Daisy Chain

This Spring activity has been enjoyed by generations of children. Head out into the backyard or a local park to find and collect daisies to make a chain, crown, necklace or bracelet with your child. Children that don't like wearing flowers might like to make one for a special somebody or even for one of your family's furry friends!

This simple seasonal activity is relaxing activity for the whole family which supports children's fine motor skills and hand eye coordination.